

Practitioner's Statement

by

name

- A description of starting points and influences

Write a brief description of the process you have been through to create this artwork and how it has been inspired by the work of Howard Arkley (100 words)

- An explanation of the intended meaning or message of the practical work(s)

What is your work representing and what is it about? (100 words)

- Your evaluation of your own practical work(s) and connections with other practitioners' work

Be positive about your work; write about how well you have appropriated Howard Arkley's work (50 Words).

Remember 12-point font, justified type and 1.5 Spacing